

Rolemodel

Jarreau Vandal

And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model
And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model
I'm just being me, I ain't aim to please
If you were doing you they'd be talking 'bout you too
And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model

Woke up to my phone blown up covered in these texts
I was at the afterparty, probably at the next
They say they saw me here and I was doing that
They love to see me falling up but I am way too blessed
Acting like my best friend when they on the internet
But see me in real life and then they all seem to forget
When you say my name you better say it with respect
They only be around me when there's something they can get

Tell me, are you happy?
What's your purpose?
Is it worth it?
Watching me?
Yeah, yeah
Watching me? yeah

And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model
And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model
I'm just being me, I ain't aim to please
If you were doing you they'd be talking 'bout you too
And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model

Hol' up please wait a minute now (hol' up hol' up)
Tell me how they always know about my whereabouts
All I ever do is win and still they acting out
Jealousy because I be cooking all the flavors out
Wanna taste a little sauce, oh you think you know it all
God you must be really bored, I swear I'd be so appalled
Top off the conversation, I'm not even there
Feeling like a [?]

Tell me, are you happy?
What's your purpose?
Is it worth it?
Watching me?
Yeah, yeah
Watching me? yeah

And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model
And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
Like I am some role model
I'm just being me, I ain't aim to please
If you were doing you they'd be talking 'bout you too
And they always always always always watching me yeah (yeah)
