

FRESH

Jarren Benton

I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Got a month of rent just chillin' on my neck
Got some throat before I rolled out of the bed
Pelaton in the gym, I ain't never got flex
Everything I do is real smooth
Caught a vibe, watch me get into a groove
Should start an only fans get money for my nudes
Open up the blinds let the neighbors get a view

I'm feelin' brand new, I'm feelin' like money
Birthday suit gon' cost a few hunnid
Bring the super freak out, Rick James
Double hand twist, she better use both hands
I look in the mirror like I would fuck me
Everything about me lookin' lovely
Know some people who'll pay me just to fuck me
And never have you ever been so lucky

I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Fit drippin' from my toes to my neck
Double take in the mirror just to check
I woke up this morning lookin' fresh
I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Fit drippin' from my toes to my neck
Double take in the mirror just to check
I woke up this morning lookin' fresh

Bitch, you see the feet, where the fuck is paparazzi in
Woke up fresh to death in niggas' closet, caught a body
Mink coat killer, what the fuck you know about me
I'll murk your favorite rapper with the Audi out in Saudi
My bitch decided my wheel on my dick inside of my piece
ATL-ian, I was raised down in the southeast
Had to get it masked up, not to count like Dr. Fauci's
No trunk inside the water, got the chopper right beside me

Lot of dollar bills and a large amount of pills
I woke up this morning dressed like Karl Lagerfeld
Nigga's jealous of my blessings, they like, God, gotta chill
Keep on flexin' on these bitches, disregard how they feel
Bend a knee when bitches see me, baby, y'all gotta kneel
I got heart in the field, nigga's heart made of steel
Payin' paid on the beat, let my art pay the bills
Makin somethin' out of nothin', bitch, it's sharp like the kill

I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Fit drippin' from my toes to my neck
Double take in the mirror just to check
I woke up this morning lookin' fresh
I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Fit drippin' from my toes to my neck
Double take in the mirror just to check
I woke up this morning lookin' fresh

I woke up this morning feelin' blessed
Pants lookin' saggy cause the pockets all stretched
Middle finger for the haters, y'all look stressed

Cause my fit fitted in and the weed burn fresh
Yes, God, I'm smellin' like money
Do my lil' dancey dance and the girls love it
Do my lil' music thing, I ran up the budget
So if you ain't talkin' big bills, I'ma say, fuck it, run it

Gold round my neck, got this bitch drippin' sweat
I'm livin' right now, y'all livin' what's next
A bit complex, you seem perplexed
No change, let me do what I do best
I'm a hooligan leavin' hickies on titties
While I sign my name on a chest, no, really
So I'ma stay high till I die, live on cloud nine
Fresh head to toe, this is my time, welcome to the high life

I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Fit drippin' from my toes to my neck
Double take in the mirror just to check
I woke up this morning lookin' fresh
I woke up this morning feelin' fresh
Fit drippin' from my toes to my neck
Double take in the mirror just to check
I woke up this morning lookin' fresh
