Only pick the roses in the cemetery

Uh ha uh
Ain't no mercy for my adversaries
Niggas all cap they imaginary
I went savage in the sanctuary
Never get the low end it was necessary, uhh
Don't know when my heart went astray
I wake up and pray, these niggas are crazy
I hop in the car with AK brr, uh
I pop out your brains and then call it a day (call it a day)
I'm out for revenge it's the bully bitch ya'll gotta pay (ya'll gotta pay)
To rid all my demons I might need a whole lotta sage (whole lotta sage)
Nail in the coffin these niggas can't crawl out their graves
Uuh, only love when it's ashes to ashes
Get the roses when they close the casket
See all my scars niggas know I don't mask it
Shit got dark I done turned to a savage
Book of matches to burn up the fascists
Tried to run away from all the pain I carried
Made me lose my mind inside the sanctuary nigga

I had to sit and be still
I lost some people I love
We let the Hennessy spill
I want my enemies killed
There is no sympathy still
Lately I feel like I'm close to the edge
I just flushed all my meds he won't get em refilled
Fuck it, who want the smoke
I got that thing in my coat
You know that I won't get close
People they come and they go
I used to cum in her throat
Left that hoe summers ago
They hit ya phone when they broke
These niggas ain't honorable
The snakes only bite at the vulnerable
So I left them hung on the rope ya (blegh)
