Jarryd James

Old enough to notice
Young enough to be unsure
I sing for my life though
'Cause if I don't get it some other will
If I could go round again I would

All at once I see it I feel it
I don't belong here
On my life
See you on the other side
Oh no no you and me we're both at
Opposite angles
On my life
See you on the other side

Speak in different language ooh
No one knows any better
They play for their lives though
'Cause if they can't get it some other will
If there ain't no other way they're gone

All at once I see it I feel it
I don't belong here
On my life
See you on the other side
Oh no no you and me we're both at
Opposite angles
On my life
See you on the other side

All my self control
Just to stay in
All my self control
Should I see it through

All at once I see it I feel it
I don't belong here
On my life
See you on the other side
Oh no no you and me we're both at
Opposite angles
On my life
See you on the other side
