

Collide

Jars of Clay

F# B5

Open up your box of sunshine

F# B5

and smile as confetti comes raining down on you

F# B5

You feel a lot like the good guy, but do you know why

F#

Everything's so blue

F# B5

Well, love is fire and the coals are barely burning

F# B5

Cold fills the emptiness that fills this empty place

F# B5

I taught you the walk but then you ran away from me and that's not how it's supposed to be

F# A5 B5

I, I collide with love as an elusive state of mind

F# A5 B5

I know there's something else it's supposed to be

F# A5 B5

I, I collide with love as an elusive state of mind

G D

something's killing me

F# B5

Tearful confessions have watered down and broken down

F# B5

the chance for unrequited love to finally reach its wall

F# B5

you're waiting for the ax to fall

Bsus4

Can't you see it lying on the ground?

F# E Em B5

F# E Em B5

You could be the best one at cleaning up this mess

B5

Be the best one, be the best one, be the best one.
