

BLACK ICE

JASIAH

Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah

Keep your heart at hold
Out here it's too cold
Black ice on the road
I can't lose control

We can't get enough
I just wanna take it back when I was young
Remember when you told me I'm the one
I don't even wanna think about what I've done (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
But I promise you that I'm not tryna run (Tryna run)
No, I can't forget about the shit that you love (The shit you love)
Remember when you told me I'm the one (I'm the one)
Remember when you told me I'm the one (I'm the one)

Pretty little lights, watch it fly away (Fly away)
Looking at the sky, turned night to day (Night to day)
My heart's getting tired, I can't fight today (Fight today)
But you've been on my mind since the time you came (The time you came)
I can't really think about a thing to say (A thing to say)
I've been feeling blue, it's the price to pay (The price to pay)
But I ain't tryna drown in your tidal wave (Your tidal wave)
But if you're ever lost then I'll find your way

We can't get enough
I just wanna take it back when I was young
Remember when you told me I'm the one
I don't even wanna think about what I've done (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
But I promise you that I'm not tryna run (Tryna run)
No, I can't forget about the shit that you love (The shit you love)
Remember when you told me I'm the one (I'm the one)
Remember when you told me I'm the one (I'm the one)

Want to run away
Sick and tired of this feeling, I don't want it to stay
Too scared of myself to say that I'm afraid
I've been acting out lately, don't know how to behave
You're talking all that shit, what do you get?
She said that I'm crazy up inside my head, inside my brain
I've been trying, I've been trying to break out these fucking chains
Been just staying in my lane
All black fit on me, Balenciagas black, call me Bruce Wayne, yeah
Opened up about my problems, had that shit since I was a Rugrat
And talking 'bout my feelings, that some shit I always sucked at Started cutting all my wrists so I can find out where the blood at
Never talk, I never open up, bitch, I do not discuss that

Keep your heart at hold
Out here it's too cold
Black ice on the road
I can't lose control
