

SUMMER RAIN

JASIAH

Ooh, ooh

So much for a good time
So much for a good time, you were lying
You said you would be mine
You said you would be mine, now I'm dying
So much for a good time, perfect timing
Unlike so much for a good time, you were lying
You said you would be mine while you were crying
I know you said you would be mine, now I'm dying

Ooh, huh-ooh, ooh, huh-ooh
Life and pain ain't it for me
Who or how? Nothing but sorrows and doubt
I see the on my window, who am I?
Who am I? Who am I? Who am I?
Where would I go now? Love is unknown now
Where would I go now? Love is unknown now
Where would I go now? Since love is unknown now
Where would I go now? (Where would?) Love is unknown
Ooh, huh-ooh, ooh, huh-ooh

So much for a good time
So much for a good time, you were lying
You said you would be mine
You said you would be mine, now I'm dying
So much for a good time, perfect timing (Ooh)
Unlike so much for a good time, you were lying (Ooh)
You said you would be mine while you were crying (Ooh)
I know you said you would be mine, now I'm dying (Ooh)
