

Into Words

Jasmine Murray

Is there a word more meaningful than beautiful
'Cause right now I can't find the air to breathe
When I say the word out loud it's only syllables
And it can't explain Your everything to me

I keep on trying to define Your love
But I can't describe the indescribable

I can't put You into words
'Cause I know it's not enough
It will never be enough
Your grace and mercy are so much more
More than I deserve
Forever I will serve You
I can't put You into words

Is there a word more powerful than powerful
You made the oceans, the mountains, and the sky
Your grace, Your grace is unexplainable
Lord, I can feel Your sovereign hand guiding my life

I keep on trying to define Your love
But every time it proves impossible

I can't put You into words
'Cause I know it's not enough
It will never be enough
Your grace and mercy are so much more
More than I deserve
Forever I will serve You
I can't put You into words

You found me at my weakest
Now the Cross has left me speechless
Every moment with You Jesus
I'll try, I'll try, I'll try

But I can't put You into words
'Cause I know it's not enough
It will never be enough
Your grace and mercy are so much more
More than I deserve
Forever I will serve You
You're more than I deserve
Forever I will serve You
I can't put You into words
Oh Lord, I can't put You into words
