

Judgement

Jasmine Villegas

Think you know but you don't know
Just passing judgement
You only see just what I show
Check your assumptions

See me on your timeline
And you think you know what I'm like
You really couldn't be more wrong

Think you know but you don't know
Just passing judgement

Hate me or love me, think anything of me
But you'll never change who I am
'Cause, baby, I'm not addicted to your fleeting attention
I'm doing life the best I can

Contrary to what you think of me
I value my privacy
I ain't gonna reveal everything
To satisfy your thirsty needs

Ooh, you can keep your rumors
Ooh, I got a sense of humor

Think you know but you don't know
Just passing judgement
You only see just what I show
Check your assumptions

See me on your timeline
And you think you know what I'm like
You really couldn't be more wrong

Think you know but you don't know
Just passing judgement

I'm entertainment for you, but I'm human too
And I'm tired of your scrutiny
It's seems I'm damned if I do and damned if I don't
So I'll remain a mystery

Contrary to what you think of me
I value my privacy
I ain't gonna reveal everything
To satisfy your thirsty needs

Ooh, you can keep your rumors
Ooh, I got a sense of humor

Think you know but you don't know (you don't know)
Just passing judgement (yeah)
You only see just what I show
Check your assumptions

See me on your timeline
And you think you know what I'm like

You really couldn't be more wrong (more wrong)

Think you know but you don't know (you don't know)
Just passing judgement

You don't know nothing
No, no, no, you don't know nothing
Always lying 'bout something
But, baby, you don't know nothing

Always tripping and bugging
'Bout who I'm kissing and loving
But, baby, you don't know nothing
No, no, no, you don't know nothing (oh)

Think you know but you don't know (you don't know)
Just passing judgement
You only see just what I show (what I show)
Check your assumptions

See me on your timeline
And you think you know what I'm like
You really couldn't be more wrong

Think you know but you don't know
Just passing judgement (judgement)

You don't know nothing
No, no, no, you don't know nothing
You don't know nothing
No, no, no, you don't know nothing
