

Lessons

Jasmine Villegas

Only hit me in downtime
Even though you know my love might fade away
Only clockin' in at part time
We ain't even sleepin' in the same bed no more

You can put it all on me
But the truth is in the lies you preach, yeah, yeah
I guess this time, it wasn't meant to be

Now, I won't go
And fall in love again
I can try once more
But it ain't ain't worth it
This time I won't be second
I finally learned my lesson

I can't stop
Even though it's heavy on my heart
I can't be
The only one to blame, but

You can put it all on me
But the truth is in the lies you preach, yeah, yeah
I guess this time, it wasn't meant to be

Now, I won't go
And fall in love again
I can try once more
But it ain't ain't worth it
This time I won't be second
I finally learned my lesson

I know we got a long way to go from here
All these lessons I've finally learned
Oh-whoa, oh-whoa
Look some time, now I'm on my way
