

Warrior

Jasmine Villegas

Have you ever felt like one step from losing it?
Going through a battle and you wanna quit
But you could just start again or just relieve me

Cause I've climbed through the valleys and mountain tops
I done been through the struggles and slipped through rocks
That has never stopped me from taking the win

Yeah I fall and I fall but I get back up
Yeah I know that I'm strong and my all is enough
Yeah I fall and I fall but I get back up
When the road is rough, I just shake all the dust
I am a warrior
I am a warrior

Ain't gon' try to shut you down but gon' always miss
Cause baby you're a fighter, you were born for this
Don't use a weapon so baby please believe me

Cause I've climbed through the valleys and mountain tops
I done been through the struggles and slipped through rocks
That has never stopped me from taking the win

Yeah I fall and I fall but I get back up
Yeah I know that I'm strong and my all is enough
Yeah I fall and I fall but I get back up
When the road is rough, I just shake all the dust
I am a warrior
I am a warrior

I am a warrior, I am a warrior
I am a warrior

Yeah I fall and I fall but I get back up
Yeah I know that I'm strong and my all is enough
Yeah I fall and I fall but I get back up
When the road is rough, I just shake all the dust
I am a warrior
I am a warrior
