

Some Things You Don't Forget

Jason Aldean

She ain't nothing like the bourbon in my blood
Gets me high for a little while and then it's over
She ain't one of those move-on Mondays
Back to normal, nothing weighing on ya

Wish I could leave it all behind me
Without ever looking back
Well, she's a buzz that still runs through my head
And goodbye don't come easy
With a girl like that
I swear sometimes I wish we'd never met
Yeah, 'cause some things you don't forget

That boardwalk neon blue shining on her lips
I still can taste that sweet Malibu on her
That wild in her eyes, laid me down by the water
That summer-night high tide washing up on us

Wish I could leave it all behind me

Without ever looking back
Well, she's a buzz that still runs through my head
And goodbye don't come easy
With a girl like that
I swear sometimes I wish we'd never met
Yeah, 'cause some things you don't forget

She's a buzz that still runs through my head
No, I can't forget
No, I can't forget

I still can taste that sweet

Wish I could leave it all behind me
Without ever looking back
Oh she's a buzz that still runs through my head
And goodbye don't come easy
With a girl like that
Oh I swear sometimes I wish we'd never met
Yeah, 'cause some things you don't forget
