

When She Says Baby

Jason Aldean

Somedays its tough just getting up throwing on these boots and making that climb Somedays id rather be a no show lay low before i go out of my mind..

When she says baby
Oh no matter what comes, aint going nowhere she runs her fingers through my hair and saves me Yea that look in her eyes got me coming alive driving me good kinda crazy
when she says baby
whoah when she says baby

Some nights i come home fighting mad feel like running my fist through the wall is it even worth what im fighting for anymore feeling torn, oh to hell with it all

But when she says baby oh no matter comes aint going nowhere
she runs her fingers through my hair and saves me

driving me good kinda crazy
when she says baby

Everything gonna be alright just lay down by my side let me love you through this life Yea she's the perfect shot of faith when every bit of mine is gone something i can believe in a best friend a heaven sent love to lean on

When she says baby
oh no matter what comes, aint going no where
she runs her fingers through my hair and saves me
yea that look in her eyes got me coming alive
driving me good kinda crazy
when she says baby
ooohhh when she says baby that look in her eyes got me coming alive and driving me a good kinda crazy
