

My Arms Are Open

Jason Blaine

When your world is shaking babe
Love has let you down
And the water that you're waiting in
Is getting deep enough to drown

When your heart is on an end
And you feel like you could use a friend
We can try again

My arms are open babe
Reaching out for you
My arms are open babe
If you need something just to get you through
Fall into my arms

When the shadows of the moonlight fade
Falls soft against your skin
And you're looking just to find a way
To cure the lonely creeping in

You've got my number in your phone
No, we don't have to be alone
Baby, don't you know that

My arms are open babe
Reaching out for you
My arms are open babe
And there's nothing that I won't do
Fall into my arms

You've got my number in your phone
No, we don't have to be alone
Baby, don't you know that

My arms are open babe
Reaching out for you
My arms are open babe
And there's nothing that I won't do
Fall into, fall into

My arms are open babe
Reaching out for you
My arms are open babe
If you need something just to get you through
Fall into my arms
Fall into my arms, babe
