

Anywhere

Jason Chen

Look at the sunrise, the sky behind you
Take a second enjoy the view
Look at the clouds now, floating beside you
See them from a new point of view

I know a little place to grab pizza in Italy
Then we can fly to Paris for wine
We can dream in New York City where they never sleep
In Iceland we can dance with the Northern Lights

We'll wake up in paradise, no place like home
Anywhere you wanna go
Choose a place, and close your eyes, we'll be right there
You'll wake up in paradise
Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere you wanna go

Look at the rainbow, so high above you (high above you)
Cause the storm can bring beauty too
Look at the sunset, the gold shining through (gold shining through)
I wanna see so many more with you

Catch me out in London, take a black cab with my Queen
Climb the Great Wall with Yao Ming
Sing on top of Everest and if it gets way too cold
We'll go catch Pikachu in Tokyo

We'll wake up in paradise, no place like home
Anywhere you wanna go
Choose a place, and close your eyes, we'll be right there
You'll wake up in paradise
Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere you wanna go
Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere you wanna go

I know a little place to grab pizza in Italy
Then we can fly to Paris for wine
Sing on top of Everest and if it gets way too cold
We'll go anywhere you wanna go

We'll wake up in paradise, no place like home
Anywhere you wanna go
Choose a place, and close your eyes, we'll be right there
You'll wake up in paradise
Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere you wanna go
Anywhere, anywhere, anywhere you wanna go
