

Cheating Dreams

Jason Chen

Every night in your dreams, you say that I'm cheating
That is how I know you're crazy
Dream me's eloping, running off with Sydney Sweeney
Real me's stressing, doing dishes and folding laundry

Good night, I don't wanna fight
Don't blame me, for your insecurities
Once more, as you start snore
I'm hoping in your dreams there is no infidelity

I'm here, there's nothing to fear
You are safe, cause if I cheat
It won't be just in your dreams

I'm here, there's nothing to fear
You are safe, cause if I cheat
It won't be just in your dreams
