

Deja Vu

Jason Chen

Sometimes I take your love for granted
Sometimes it's too good to be true
Baby I know that I'm not perfect
Somehow I am when I'm with you

Cause we make each other better
And I fall in love over and over

It's like we're living in a love story
Rewinding straight back to the beginning
Our love feels new every morning
You give me Deja Vu

Am I in love? Is this inception?
I swear I felt this way before
I'll find a million ways to show you
The same three words you heard before

Cause we make each other better
And I fall in love over and over

It's like we're living in a love story
Rewinding straight back to the beginning
Our love feels new every morning
You give me Deja Vu

We're trapped in the sweetest dream
Our love's like a time machine
You give me Deja Vu

We're trapped in the sweetest dream
Our love's like a time machine
You give me Deja Vu

Over and over again
I keep on falling for you
Over and over again
You've given me Deja Vu
Deja Vu

It's like we're living in a love story
Rewinding straight back to the beginning
Our love feels new every morning
You give me Deja Vu

We're trapped in the sweetest dream
Our love's like a time machine
You give me Deja Vu

We're trapped in the sweetest dream
Our love's like a time machine
You give me Deja Vu
