

Guilty

Jason Chen

Are you scarred by what he put you through?
Is that why you treat me like you do?
You keep building walls I can't break through what can I do to prove myself to you?

Just because he was unfaithful
Doesn't make me a cheater
Just because he just wasn't true
Doesn't make me a liar

Can't you see
That he ain't me (he ain't me)
This is not how it's supposed to be
No way I can win
Guilty until proven innocent
Now I'm paying for his sins

The shouting seeming all like deja vu
'Cause I can't stand the thought of hurting you
But you keep pushing me farther away
Even when I'm begging you to stay

Just because he was unfaithful
Doesn't make me a cheater
Just because he just wasn't true
Doesn't make me a liar

Can't you see
That he ain't me (he ain't me)
This is not how it's supposed to be
No way I can win
Guilty until proven innocent
Now I'm paying for his sins

It's unfair
To compare
Everytime you needed me I've been right there
I just know I can't hold on
Unless you let it go~

Can't you see
That he ain't me (he ain't me)
This is not how it's supposed to be
No way I can win
Guilty until proven innocent
Now I'm paying for his sins

Can't you see
That he ain't me (he ain't me)
This is not how it's supposed to be
No way I can win
Guilty until proven innocent
Now I'm paying for his sins
