Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream
Bad dream, bad dream, bad dream, bad dream, bad dream...

I'm leaving California
Don't know which way to go
Sometimes the sun just ain't enough
So I'm searching for some snow

Say ya ya ya ya
Looking for myself but I don't know where to find me
A ya ya ya ya
Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream
A ya ya ya ya
Looking for myself but I don't know where to find me
A ya ya ya ya
Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream

Every answer brings a question
What the hell am I searching for
Cause I'm looking in the mirror
But this gotta be something more

Say ya ya ya ya
Looking for myself but I don't know where to find me
A ya ya ya ya
Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream
A ya ya ya ya
Looking for myself but I don't know where to find me
A ya ya ya ya
Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream
A ya ya ya ya
A ya ya ya ya

And I'm still searching
Cause my home don't feel like home
My heart is racing
It's piercing through my pound

Say ya ya ya ya
A ya ya ya ya

A ya ya ya ya
Looking for myself but I don't know where to find me
A ya ya ya ya
Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream
A ya ya ya ya
Looking for myself but I don't know where to find me
A ya ya ya ya
Don't know where I am, tell me it's a sort of bad dream
Bad dream, bad dream, bad dream, bad dream, bad dream...
Tell me, tell me, tell me...
