

Love Again

Jason Chen

I was, I was at rock bottom
Of my life, but you came in
And you know I was, I was losing myself
You took my shattered heart and fixed it up again, yeah

I was lost and let it be found
All good things have me wait now
You saved my soul, I'm alive now
You pulled me from the grave, yeah
Baby, I'm not the same

You've shown me how to love again
You've shown me how to love again
When everything was 'bout to end
You've shown me how to love again, again

You know I don't like sugar in my coffee
You know better than I know me, yeah
And it's amazing how you keep happy
So I'ma love you just like you are royalty, yeah

I was lost and let it be found
All good things have me wait now
You saved my soul, I'm alive now
You pulled me from the grave, yeah
Baby, I'm not the same

You've shown me how to love again
You've shown me how to love again
When everything was 'bout to end
You've shown me how to love again, again

You turned the page baby
You sparked the flame baby
Rewrote my name real good

You've shown me how to love again
You've shown me how to love again
When everything was 'bout to end
You've shown me how to love again, again
