

No Shoes In The House

Jason Chen

Take off your shoes, immediately
In this Asian home, would you show it some respect please
I just swept all the floors, don't they look pristine?
Then you walk through the door, with dirty heels, stepping on e verything

Back when I was just a child, my mother she told me
That I should always do my best to keep the house neat

I got slippers for your feet
They're warm, so cozy and they're clean
You can go barefoot if you feel the need
But no shoes in the house please
Keep them off of the couch I beg
And don't you dare wear them to bed
Now did you listen to anything I said?
No shoes in the house, no shoes in the house please
No
No shoes in the house, no shoes in the house please
No
No shoes in the house, no shoes in the house please
