

Permanent

Jason Chen

I've tried to wipe your memory
I've tried to scrub your lingering
Oh I've tried a million times
But I just can't do it

I died again you live in me oh..
Sounds of your voice play on repeat
Oh I.. I can't forget you babe
No I just can't do it

'Cuz you're permanent
You're permanent
You just won't go away
There's no way to erase you
No I just can't do it

'Cuz you're permanent
You're permanent
Forever in my mind
Trying to put you behind
But I just can't do it

No.. no

You left a beautiful scar oh
Your love still beats through my heart oh
I can't ignore your face
I just can't do it
No..

There were times I put you in a box
That I hid from myself
And I just break the lock
I can't eliminate you
No I just won't do it..

'Cuz you're permanent
You're permanent
You just won't go away
There's no way to erase you
No I just can't do it

You're permanent
You're permanent
Forever in my mind
Trying to put you behind
No I just can't do it

You're like a tattoo that won't fade on me

'Cuz you're permanent
You're permanent
You just won't go away
There's no way to erase you
I just can't do it

You're permanent

You're permanent
Forever in my mind
