

Runner up

Jason Chen

I see the way
You're looking at him
Your eyes light up
With that subtle grin

I've accepted
That our ship has sailed
Don't twist things around now
And say that I've built

Really wish I could make you happy
But your heart clearly is not with me
I refuse to be your back up plan
When you've already got a man

I cannot tell you how to love
But ooh darling
I won't be your runner up
And I hope you find the one
But ooh darling
I won't be your runner up

I have
No expectation
You treat me like a friend
But want dedication

No I don't mind
Being there for you
But you give me no
Reciprocation

I really wish I could make you happy
But your heart clearly is not with me
I refuse to be your back up plan
When you've already got a man

I cannot tell you how to love
But ooh darling
I won't be your runner up
Oh and I hope
You find the one
But ooh darling
I won't be your runner up

I don't want to say goodbye
But I've gotta move on with my life
You've made a choice
And Now I've gotta make mine

I don't wanna say goodbye
But I've gotta move on with my life
You've made a choice
Now I'm making mine

No one can tell you how to love
But ooh darling

I won't be your runner up
Oh and I hope
You find the one
But ooh darling

I won't be your runner up
