

Smile for the Camera

Jason Chen

Find the light and the angle
Wearing devil clothes
But smile like an angel
Nice car in your photo
Got the whole world fooled
Cause it's just a rental
Yeah

They say a picture's worth about a thousand words
The good is loud, the bad is unheard, hey
So for the hundredth time

Spend all day
Spend all night
Fix your pose
Make it right
Let them in
Let them see
All the perfect sides of me
Just smile
Like it, they like it, they love it (Smile)
Like it, they like it, they love it (Smile)

Validate my existence
Got a million hearts
But something is missing
Ooh
Live a lie
'Cause I need to (I need to)
Convince myself
That this is the real truth
Ooh

They say a picture's worth about a thousand words
The good is loud, the bad is unheard, hey
So for the hundredth time
Woo

Spend all day
Spend all night
Fix your pose
Make it right
Let them in
Let them see
All the perfect sides of me
Just smile
Like it, they like it, they love it (Smile)
Like it, they like it, they love it (Smile)
Like it, they like it, they love it
Like it, they like it, they love it
Ooh, they love it

Like it, they like it, they love it
Like it, they like it, they love it
They loving me and they liking what they see, heya

Spend all day
Spend all night
Fix your pose
Make it right
Let them in
Let them see
All the perfect sides of me
Just smile
Like it, they like it, they love it (Smile)
Like it, they like it, they love it (Smile)
Just smile
