

So Sweet

Jason Chen

The way you make me feel you just don't know
You always pick me up when I feel low
You're the sugar sweet to kick off my day
Oh no, I just can't keep away

You got the kind of taste that screams so loud
The perfect gift without a doubt
My eyes light up when you're around
I might be addicted to you now

You're so sweet, like honey after midnight
You melt my heart like chocolate in the sunlight
So sweet, like candy after bedtime
But all I need, yeah, you're so sweet

There's not a thing that could take your place
Irreplaceable in so many ways
You got the kind of taste that screams so loud
The perfect gift without a doubt

Yeah, you're so sweet, like honey after midnight
You melt my heart like chocolate in the sunlight
So sweet, like candy after bedtime
But all I need, yeah, you're so sweet
You got me singing

You love me just, just as I am
You never judge, you never ran
Oh, I'm in love 'cause you're so perfect in every way

So sweet, like honey after midnight
You melt my heart like chocolate in the sunlight
So sweet, like candy after bedtime
But all I need, yeah, you're so sweet
You got me singing

So, so sweet

Oh, yeah, you're so sweet
