

It Don't Matter Anymore

Jason Collett

It don't matter anymore
Who's keeping score?
Nobody wins
When the hurtin' stones begin
I'm too tired
Tonight
I'm too tired to fight
I'm too tired to try
To make you feel like
Everything would be alright

It don't matter anymore
The sinner or the sin
Or which direction

The wind is blowin' in
There's no light
There's no light

Lifting your eyes
No time left to change
There's no time left to change
No time left to change
Your mind

It don't matter anymore
It don't matter anymore
You know it's the end
So the hurtin' stones begin
