

Pavement Puddle Stars

Jason Collett

sunny sunny sunny sunny californian wine

promise of a future thats already come and gone too far goodnight pavement puddle stars x2

in lonely public spaces pixelated to the tits theres a ghost of a cellphone that keeps ringing in my head

standing on a balcony with binoculars watching the sad satelites falling back to earth down here in the streets fields seem so absurd the morning poets cry tear gas tears
