Fallen

Jason Derülo

you are the one who makes it worth waking up in the morning i'd trade the sun for the chance to show you i'm all in we could be like jay and beyonce bonnie and clyde just like the movie take that chance on love (yeah yeah) now i can't predict what the future holds but i'll fight forever to keep you close (yeah)

i'd give it all up baby trade in the world to show i'm falling, i'm falling (yeah)
don't need the fame or money
as long as i got you babe i'm falling, i'm falling tell all them other girls i've fallen..

put me to the test i'll prove to you i'll never be a heartache cos you're the best you deserve the best rule this world like michelle and barack be my girl we'll live up on top
take that chance on love (yeah yeah)
now i can't predict what the future holds
but i'll fight forever to keep you close (yeah)

trade in the world to show i'm falling,
i'm falling (yeah)
as long as i got you babe
i'm falling, i'm falling
tell all them other girls i've fallen.. oh i want the world to see (see) so i bring you like some jewelry to show you that i'm not ashamed i'm falling, i'm falling (yeah) i'm telling all them other girls and everybody round the world i told you girl i'm not ashamed i'm falling, i'm falling (yeah yeah)

trade in the world to show i'm falling,
i'm falling (yeah)

trade in the world to show i'm falling,
i'm falling (yeah)
i'm falling (i'm falling baby), i'm falling tell all them other girls (tell all them other girls) (tell all them other girls) i've fallen..
