

Don't Go Nowhere

Jason Derulo

Popped a Xan' and I still can't sleep
Drop your bags, I can't let you leave
It's 3:30, where you think you going with our baby?
I ain't never seen you drive that fast
Doing one-oh-five tryna get you back
It don't matter where you going 'cause I'm coming, baby

I might never dance again
Without you, there is no rhythm
So baby, baby, stay

Don't you go nowhere, oh no, no
'Cause I'm always gon' follow you (Ooh)
Don't you go nowhere, oh no, no
'Cause I'll never get over you
I'll never get over you, oh-whoa

Tears are rolling down your face
So you're scared off in the dark
Are you suicidal, babe?
'Cause you're speeding like you are

I might never dance again
Without you, can't find my rhythm
So baby, baby, stay

Don't you go nowhere, oh no, no
'Cause I'm always gon' follow you (Ooh)
Don't you go nowhere, oh no, no (Oh)
'Cause I'll never get over you
I'll never get over you, oh-whoa

Oh no, no
Oh, oh no, no
I'll never get over you
No, no

When them lights get low, we set the tone
Let me love you out them clothes
Stay with me

Don't you go nowhere, oh no, no
'Cause I'm always gon' follow you (Ooh, girl, I'll always)
So don't you go nowhere, oh no, no (Oh no, no)
'Cause I'll never get over you
'Cause I'll never get over you

Never get over, oh
( 'Cause I'll never get over you, you)
Never get over, you
(I'll never get over you)
(I'll never get over you, no, no)
Ooh, baby
