

Fight For You

Jason Derulo

It's gonna take a lot to drag me away from you
There's nothing that a hundred men, or more, could ever do
Just like the rain down in Africa
It's gonna take some time but I know you're worth fighting for
I'd fight for you
Hey ba bum ba eh ba bum ba eh eh ba bum ba eh (RedOne)
I'd fight for you
Hey ba bum ba eh ba bum ba eh eh ba bum ba eh
I'd fight for you

Friends are cool but we both know, they don't wanna see us together
Don't wanna lose what I live for, I'm willing to do whatever
'Cause I don't wanna see you cry, give our love another try
I bet we get it right this time, as long as you're prepared to fight

I don't wanna live another day
Without your body next to me
I'm not gonna let them break us down
'Cause baby I know now

It's gonna take a lot to drag me away from you, I'd fight for you
There's nothing that a hundred men, or more could ever do, I'd fight for you
Just like the rain down in Africa, I'd fight for you
It's gonna take some time but I know you're worth fighting for (leggo)

What they say, It don't even matter, they don't really understand (whoa)
Without each other, we are barely breathing, let's get air in these hearts a gain
'Cause I don't wanna see you cry, give our love another try
I bet we get it right this time, as long as you're prepared to fight, prepared to fight

I don't wanna live another day (no)
Without your body next to me (no, oh)
I'm not gonna let them break us down
'Cause baby I know now, know now, know now

It's gonna take a lot to drag me away from you, I'd fight for you
There's nothing that a hundred men, or more could ever do, I'd fight for you
Just like the rain down in Africa, I'd fight for you (just like the rain, just like the rain, just like the rain, just like the rain)
It's gonna take some time but I know you're worth fighting for
I'd fight for you
Hey ba bum ba eh ba bum ba eh eh ba bum ba eh
I'd fight for you
Hey ba bum ba eh ba bum ba eh eh ba bum ba eh (sak pase)

If you've got someone that's worth fighting for Don't let nobody hold you down let me hear you say whoa, oh, whoa
Uh, if you've found someone (oh) that's worth dying for
The one you can't live without let me hear you say whoa, oh, whoa

It's gonna take a lot to drag me away from you, I'd fight for you
There's nothing that a hundred men, or more could ever do, I'd fight for you
Just like the rain down in Africa, I'd fight for you
It's gonna take some time but I know you're worth fighting for, woo
It's gonna take a lot to drag me away from you, I'd fight for you

There's nothing that a hundred men, or more could ever do, I'd fight for you Just like the rain down in Africa, I'd fight for you (just like the rain, just like the rain, just like the rain) It's gonna take some time but I know you're worth fighting for (whoa, whoa, whoa)
