

Key To My Heart

Jason Derulo

The way you picture me, the crowd surrounding me
I feel alone so that don't matter no, no, no
Not 'cause he's on T.V., don't know why people think
That I've got everything I don't, know, know, know

Ah, I'm still hot but some call me crazy
Ah, some say I got it all, baby
Ah, my heart is in danger, need one to save me
So I'm searching for you wherever I go

Wherever I go
I'm searching for the soul
For the one who holds
The key to my heart
So irresponsible
To search high and low
For the one who holds
The key to my heart

To find the one for me, I trade these fancy things
The cars, the diamond rings, don't matter no, no, no
Missing piece to my dream, I feel so incomplete
It just seems out of reach, but yet so damn close

Uh, I'm still hot but some call me crazy
Uh, some say I got it all, baby
Uh, my heart is in danger, you need to save me
So I'm searching for you wherever I go

Wherever I go
I'm searching for the soul
For the one who holds
The key to my heart
So irresponsible
To search high and low
For the one who holds
The key to my heart
