

Lemons

Jason Derulo

My life ain't perfect but I can't complain
Life gave me lemons, I made lemonade
I throw my problems like a paper plane
So every day I'm sayin', nah nah nah, nah nah nah

My glass half full with something cold
I like my music with some soul in it
Feed me the Rock I wanna Roll
Went through some shit but now I'm over it

Wake up in the morning feeling gorgeous
Ain't got wings but I'm fly (so fly, so fly), yeah
I shine with no jewelry
I'm the hero in the movie of my (my life, my life)

My life ain't perfect but I can't complain
Life gave me lemons, I made lemonade
I throw my problems like a paper plane
So every day I'm sayin', nah nah nah, nah nah nah

Nah I can't complain (can't complain)
Ain't got much money, some things never change (never change)
But I'm a millionaire in other ways (other ways)
So every day I'm sayin', nah nah nah, nah nah nah

Yeah, uh
My life is something like my clothes, uh
Looking good but got some holes in it
Down to my Nikes I got soul
Been through some shit but now I'm over it

Wake up in the morning feeling gorgeous
Ain't got wings but I'm fly (so fly, so fly), yeah
I shine with no jewelry
I'm the hero in the movie of my (my life, my life)

My life ain't perfect but I can't complain
Life gave me lemons, I made lemonade
I throw my problems like a paper plane
So every day I'm sayin', nah nah nah, nah nah nah

Nah I can't complain (can't complain)
Ain't got much money, some things never change (never change)
But I'm a millionaire in other ways (other ways)
So every day I'm sayin', nah nah nah, nah nah nah

My glass half full with something cold
I like my music with some soul in it
Feed me the Rock I wanna Roll
Went through some shit but now I'm over it
