

Nu King

(With you)

Why you wanna run away?
Why you wanna break us down?
Don't you wanna find a way?
We could co-exist right now

I'm watchin' you pack your bags
Baby, put your suitcase down
We're supposed to live royally
It's you that handed me the crown

Put some higher searching, foreign upon the Jeep (Oh)
When I am the one you jumped on, one, two, three
But I don't know if it's worth the energy (Oh)
The energy (Oh)
And that's when she said

Nu King, listen to your heart
Listen to your heart
That's when she said
Nu King, listen to your heart
Heart
Listen to your heart (Heart)

(With you)
