Super Model

Jason Derulo

Smile, incredible
Slim, unforgettable
Body, so edible
Damn, this girl's impeccable
She's so out of control
She ain't even gotta say two words
Let me take you home and I kill that girl with two stones
And her body so put together I'll fit any type of weather
Steppin' like she on a catwalk
And nobody here doin' that better
And she can be my super model
And if you're living life in the fast lane
Then let me be your Prado
Told to hold on, baby let's ride
I take you from the east to the west side
She keep your zone head tied
Jet lag or day, she fly

Oh don't you know she can be a, be a, super model
Oh don't you know she can be mine, be mine
Baby, I know
She ain't you
The way, you want my shirt after we make love
She ain't you
The way you kiss my lips, baby just because
It's just the way ay
You say my name
Or when we play
It's not the same

She ain't you I'm seeing you
I know she, know she bad
You ain't gotta tell her, no
She ain't bifa lames
Her swag so acappella
Skin is frephenela
Open up and get a taste
Put 'em on waking up every morning
Just to go home and see that face
Smile incredible
Slim, unforgettable
Body, so edible
Damn, this girl's impeccable
Oh, so let's be inseparable

I only want you on my runway I found my super model
Yeah, you go find yours one day

Baby, I know She ain't you
The way, you want my shirt after we make love
She ain't you
The way you kiss my lips, baby just because
It's just the way ay
You say my name
Or when we play

It's not the same
