

Ha-ha, oh yeah, well shit, you bad so eh
Wave to my ex and you, baby

I've gotta thank, gotta thank
That man that didn't know what he had, yeah (know what he had)
And I got a thing for that brain
That made you happy making him mad, yeah (making him mad)

Well he dropped a dime
I came up behind and I picked it up, picked it up
Uh, yeah, that look on his face
When he sees the way that you switched it up, switched it up

Your heart was broken back then and I was perfect revenge
You say, I just want my ex to see you
And it was okay with me, but I hope things to see
I say, I just want my ex to see you
Started as a sexy rebound, but you sleeping next to me now
You say, I just want my ex to see you
Started as a sexy rebound, now you getting the best of me now
I say, I just want my ex to see you

I wish my ex all the best
But I hope she see me with my new new, woo (with my new new)
We'll be dancing like we're sexing
I'd be lying, uh, if I said we ain't got nothing to approve (oh)

Well he dropped a dime
I came up behind and I picked it up, picked it up (yes, I did)
That look on his face
When he sees the way that you switched it up, switched it up (yeah, switched it up)

Your heart was broken back then and I was perfect revenge
You say, I just want my ex to see you
And it was okay with me, but I hope things to see
I say, I just want my ex to see you
Started as a sexy rebound, but you sleeping next to me now
You say, I just want my ex to see you
Started as a sexy rebound, girl, you getting the best of me now
I say, I just want my ex to see you too

I upgraded, Dolce purses and them clothes, take my credit card and go
Just payback, payback, we'll call it payback, payback (ha-ha, yeah, upgraded)
Upgraded, drink champagne like H₂O, payback can be icy cold
Payback, payback, we'll call it payback, payback

Your heart was broken back then and I was perfect revenge (perfect)
You say, I just want my ex to see you
And it was okay with me, but I hope things to see (okay, babe, I wanna show you off to the world)
I say, I just want my ex to see you (woo)
Started as a sexy rebound, but you sleeping next to me now
You say, I just want my ex to see you
Started as a sexy rebound, but you sleeping next to me now
I say, I just want my ex to see you

Slow it down on 'em
I just want my ex to see, to see you baby, but first
Take me from the bullshit, fly me from the pain
Somewhere between fantasy and my dreams
When I hit rock bottom, you changed everything
Better believe that you saved me
Baby, your angel wings, fly somewhere where there is means (your angels, always been)
Baby, your angel wings, girl I just want my ex to see you (angel wings)
Whoa, oh, oh
I just want my ex to see you (ooh)
Whoa, oh, oh
I just want my ex to see you, baby
Going back, back, ain't never going going back, no, no
Going back, back, ain't never going going back, no, no
Going back, back, ain't never going going back, no, no
Going back, back, ain't never going going back, no, no
