

Oxygen

Jason Donovan

I take each breath as if it is my first
I hold it there so deep inside me
Until I'm fit to burst
I speak each word as if it is your name
I move my lips, I taste the moment
And still it sounds the same
Your hand moves and so does mine
Our hearts beat, our body's keeping time

You are my oxygen I breathe you in
I breathe you out
You are my oxygen you are my love
You are what life's about

I take each breath as if it is my last
You never know what came so slowly
Can leave as oh so fast
I take each step as if it is to you
I hear your voice and feel your presence
In every thing I do
My body sleeps your lips revive
If you where not here what would I do
What would I do

You are my oxygen I breathe you in
I breathe you out
You are my oxygen you are my love
You are what life's about
You are my oxygen, oh yes you are
You are my oxygen you are my love
You are what life's about
