

When I Get You Alone

Jason Donovan

Been watching you hoping I could talk with you too Whenever I see you around you're always standing in a crowd Just how far can I go for the chance to let you know how much
I dream of your touch
I want it so much
but never does the time seem right
But when I get you alone
I'm gonna give you all my love

Heaven knows is this the way the story goes So tell me what on earth should I do Will I ever get to be with you Just a word, that would do could convince me that you knew how much

I dream of your touch
I want it so much
but never does the time seem right
But when I get you alone
I'm gonna give you all my love
I dream of your touch
I want it so much
but never does the time seem right
But when I get you alone
I'm gonna give you all my love

Always standing in a crowd
for the chance to let you know how much
I dream of your touch
I want it so much
but never does the time seem right
But when I get you alone
I'm gonna give you all my love

I dream of your touch
I want it so much
but never does the time seem right
But when I get you alone
I'm gonna give you all my love

I dream of your touch
I want it so much
but never does the time seem right
But when I get you alone
I'm gonna give you all my love
