

Happy Man

Jason Eady

If I die today, I died a happy man who lived and loved and sang I've had a life I used to dream of, I wouldn't change too many things

Don't cry too much for me: I lived 'til I was too old to die yo ung

Know that I went out at ease happy with the song I've sung

Well I'm as proud as a dad can be, I married my best friend Together we have seen the world and made music with the band

If I die today, I died a happy man who lived and loved and sang

Don't cry too much for me: I lived 'til I was too old to die yo ung

Know that I went out at ease happy with the song I've sung

I've had good times with old friends and laughed the night away
I've had the love of a family and I felt it every day

If I die today, I died a happy man who lived and loved and sang

Don't cry too much for me: I lived 'til I was too old to die yo ung

Know that I went out at ease happy with the song I've sung

Know that I went out at ease happy with the song I've sung
