

Does He Know

Jason Michael Carroll

This small town has never been good at hidin' things
Word gets around and it's all by mouth
They say you've never looked better and he treats you like a queen
And I've heard rumors that he's talkin' bout a ring

Does he know that you still call me when you're all alone?
Does he think that you're where you wanna be?
Does he know how close you are to really bein' gone?
Does he know that you're still not over me?
Does he know you at all?

You've always been so strong and so sure of yourself
So why the hell can you not tell?
You wouldn't be reachin' out and there wouldn't be a doubt
If you were in love with him you wouldn't need me now

Does he know that you still call me when you're all alone?
Does he think that you're where you wanna be?
Does he know how close you are to really bein' gone?
Does he think that you're where you wanna be?
Does he know how close you are to really bein' gone?
Does he know that you're still not over me?
Does he know you at all?

If he knew the truth and what he stood to lose
Would he fight for you? Would you want him to?

Does he know that you still call me when you're all alone?
Does he think that you're where you wanna be?
Does he know how close you are to really bein' gone?
Does he know that you're still not over me?
Does he know you at all?
Does he know you at all?

This small town has never been good at hidin' things
Word gets around and it's all by mouth
