

You Are

Jason Nelson

There's a word to describe
The glory of our Savior
All heaven does cry
Singing songs to the creator
No one compares to You
None can measure Your greatness
So we declare this truth
Yes we will shout
Sing it aloud

You are Holy
Holy
You are Holy
The One and only God

All the angels do sing
Of the glory of Your greatness
Bowing down at Your feet
Worshipping and giving reverence
No one compares to You
None can measure Your greatness
So we declare this truth
Yes we will shout
Sing it aloud

You are worthy worthy
You are worthy
The One and only God
You are worthy worthy
You are worthy
The One and only God

To You there is no equal
There's none found on the earth
You are the One and only
God of the universe

You are Holy
Holy
You are Holy
The One and only God

To You there is no equal
There's none found on the earth
You are the One and only
God of the universe
To You there is no equal
There's none found on the earth
You are the One and only
God of the universe

You are Holy
Holy
You are Holy
The One and only God

You are worthy worthy

You are worthy
The One and only God

You are Holy
Holy
You are Holy
The One and only God

You are Holy
Holy
Holy Holy Holy
Holy
You are worthy worthy worthy
The One and Only God

You are
You are
God you are faithful
