

Lighthouse Keeper

Jason Reeves

Feeling like a castaway
Talking to a volleyball
Stuck in this electric maze
Waiting for the walls to fall

Cause everybody is what they're not right now
Dying for a fake kind of famous
I just wanna live in the woods with my friends
But I haven't seen any of them in ages

Oh, it's a mad mad world
I know
But I won't let it make me crazy
'Cause you are a lighthouse keeper in a hurricane
Your calm in the chaos shakes me
Down to my soul
Down to my soul
Down to my soul

Down to my soul, to my soul

Hold me like a human being
Show me what a heart is for
You're beautiful without a screen
All your imperfections are what I adore

Oh, it's a mad mad world
I know
But I won't let it make me crazy
'Cause you are a lighthouse keeper in a hurricane
Your calm in the chaos shakes me
Down to my soul
Down to my soul
Down to my soul

Down to my soul, to my soul

Oh, it's a mad mad world
I know
But I won't let it make me crazy
'Cause you are a lighthouse keeper in a hurricane
Your calm in the chaos shakes me
Down to my soul
Down to my soul
Down to my soul
