

More Than I Meant To

Jason Reeves

You're not safe
Fading in the wake of time
And the sense of your skin
Is a ghost in my heart's demise

And I know what I did wasn't right
But I can't rewind
Cause your beauty is so bad
It burned me and felt me burned
Oh o-oh

Cause I miss more than I meant to
And I want you more than I want to
And I loved you so much more than I knew
But I hurt you more than I meant to

Your's is not just a beat
But my heart can't beat alone
And the sound of your breath
Is a wind that I'll always bore

Like a jug in my veins
I would be always be wanting more
Cuz your kiss is the fix
That my lips have been longing for
Oh o-oh

And I miss more than I meant to
And I want you more than I want to
I guess I loved you so much more than I knew
But I hurt you more than I meant to
Hey

I miss more than I meant to Guess I want you more than I want to
I guess I loved you so much more than I ever knew
But I hurt you more than I meant to
Hey

I miss more than I meant to
And I want you more than I want to
Guess I loved you so much more than I knew
But I hurt you more than I meant to

Guess I hurt you more than I meant to
Yes, I hurt you more than I meant to
