

In Another Life (Goodbye)

Jason Walker

We knew that this was coming
Both of us tired of running
From the truth, from the lies
From that look in your eyes
We knew that this was coming

It's always hard to say goodbye
And it took this long to realize
Maybe we will get it right
In another life (Ooh)
In another life (Ooh)

Why do we keep on hurting
Love is a pain worth learning
From the truth, from the lies
From the signals and the signs
Why do we keep on hurting

It's always hard to say goodbye
And it took this long to realize
Maybe we will get it right
In another life (Ooh)
In another life (Ooh)

(Ooh) It's so hard to say goodbye
(Ooh) Oh it's so hard to say goodbye
(Ooh) It's so hard to say goodbye
(Ooh) Oh, oh
(Ooh)
(Ooh)

It's always hard to say goodbye
And it took this long to realize
Maybe we will get it right
In another life (Ooh)
In another life (Ooh)
In another life (Ooh)
In another life (Ooh)

It's always hard to say goodbye
