

Keep Stepping

Jason Walker

We've been running from the arrows
That are aiming at our backs
We've been dodging falling shadows
And we're dying just to pass
We're looking over our shoulders
'Cause they're following our tracks
But they're never gonna catch us
No they're never gonna catch us

'Cause even if our feet fail
We keep on trying
We throw our fears of the sunset
To the sun that's rising
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa) Yeah

Until the river's running backwards
And gravity lifts us up
Till the fire freezes over
I won't say I've had enough
We're looking over our shoulders
'Cause they're following our tracks
But they're never gonna catch us
No they're never gonna catch us

'Cause even if our feet fail
We keep on trying
We throw our fears of the sunset
To the sun that's rising
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)

Inch by inch, mile by mile
We keep stepping
We don't stop, never tire
We keep stepping
Inch by inch, mile by mile
We keep stepping
We don't stop, never tire
We keep stepping (We keep stepping)

'Cause even if our feet fail
We keep on trying
We throw our fears of the sunset
To the sun that's rising
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)
We keep stepping on, keep stepping
Keep stepping (Whoa)
