

Souvenir

Jason Walker

I did it again
Got lost in the gin
And you were on my mind
And with every sip
I tasted your lips
Pressed them into mine

Yet I'm on the shelf now
There's somebody else taking you home
And I can't feel a beat in my chest
When I sleep now, I know

You keep my heart like a souvenir
To let you know that you are here
In every part, love the way it feels
To know the truth, to know it's real

So keep my heart, keep my heart
Keep my heart, keep my heart

You found the hole
I tore in your coat
When you almost fell, oh
And it takes you back
To the way that we laughed
On that carousel, oh

But I'm on the shelf now
There's somebody else taking you home
And I can't feel a beat in my chest
When I sleep now, I know

You keep my heart like a souvenir
To let you know that you are here
In every part, love the way it feels
To know the truth, to know it's real

So keep my heart, keep my heart
Keep my heart, keep my heart

I'm on the shelf now
There's somebody else taking you home
And I can't feel a beat in my chest
When I sleep now, I know

You keep my heart like a souvenir
To let you know that you are here
In every part, love the way it feels
To know the truth, to know it's real

So keep my heart, keep my heart
Keep my heart, keep my heart