

Suddenly

Jason Walker

Frozen

Wrapped in the warmth of your golden
Me and my heart in the moment

Right now our loves out in the open
And everything I've ever known is
About to become something different
Rules were made to be rewritten in an instant

Time is
Suddenly all of my time is
Slowing down, stopping
And I'm with you
Isn't it loving
If it happened suddenly

Safety
Knowing that you're gonna save me
If I go down, your going with me
And it's simple when we're together
There's no danger

Time is
Suddenly I just don't care if
Everything crumbles if I'm with you
Everything's loving
It happened suddenly

All at stake when
Right now it still

In thus
Suddenly I see your image
Its like I'm caught in the beginning
Oh

And it's time waste
Suddenly all of my time is
Slowing down, stopping
When I'm with you
Isn't it loving when it happened suddenly?

It happened suddenly
It happened suddenly
