Jax Jones

Hello? You there?
Hello? You there?

What you, what you gon' do

If you take me out tonight
I know you can change my mind (oh)
Yesterday, we were over
But today I'm feeling closer to you (oh)

No more late night Ubers, baby
I'm not coming to your house, hah, are you crazy?
You said you were home
But I saw on your story, you're out till' the morning
Not alone, so now you're gonna call
Ring ring

Hello? You there?
Real talk, you got me going crazy
Hello? You there?
Are you out somewhere with your baby?
Hello? You there?
Real talk, you got me going crazy
Hello?
Are you there? You there? You there?

Ring ring (calling late night for ya)
Are you there? (they gon' make up on ya)
Hello? (I am hopping on the way ya)
Are you there? You there? You there?
Ring ring (calling late night for ya)
Are you there? (they gon' make up on ya)

I got a lot of friends, trust
You don't wanna meet my brother
So don't come into my X, trust
We all know you've been fucking with another
If you make it out alive (ah)
Maybe you can make this right (maybe you can make this right)
'Cause so many times, I've told you
The next time I'll be colder to you, to you

No more late night Ubers, baby

But I saw on your story, you're out till' the morning
Not alone, so now you're gonna call
