

HOW DARE YOU

Jax

I bumped into your brother at our bar he told me you were back in town
But you haven't reached out
He said you got the job in echo park and that you met somebody else
That's when I broke down

It's only been 4 months
Since you told your parents I'm the one
You said it
Don't lie, you said it
Something don't add up
Cuz I'm dying and you're happy
God the math just isn't mathing
I don't get it
How dare you
Act like nothing happened
How dare you
Move on

The audacity
To show up to the party
With my fucking carbon copy
On your arm
She's wearing my t-shirt
While I'm still wearing yours
How dare you
Love her more

I find it kinda heartless how you got a new apartment and she sleeps
In the bed I bought

I hate you and I hate her but I know I shouldn't blame her just cuz she's Everything I'm not

Something don't add up
Cuz I'm dying and you're happy
God the math just isn't mathing
I don't get it

How dare you
Act like nothing happened
How dare you
Move on

The audacity
To show up to the party
With my fucking carbon copy
On your arm
She's wearing my t-shirt
While I'm still wearing yours
How dare you
Love her more

What does she have
That I don't have
How could you
Not want me back

How dare you
How dare you move on

The audacity
To show up to the party
With my fucking carbon copy
On your arm
She's wearing my t-shirt
While I'm still wearing yours
How dare you
Love her more
