

Kickin' & Screamin'

Jax

Thanks, a lot
I took everything down for you
I put it all down for you

Thanks, a lot
I gave everything up for you
I'd give it all up for you

I had your body underneath me
Underneath
You pull her out from underneath me
Underneath my feet

I might be high
As the ceiling
You had me high
I'm believing, but now I'm missing the feeling
You had me high
As the ceiling
But I'm missing the feeling and now I'm kickin' and screamin'

Lately, it's like cupid taking candy from a baby
And baby, you blame me for everything you couldn't handle
Lately, you blame me

Pushed my luck
Maybe I crossed the line
But you told me you wanted to fight

What the fuck
You look me in the eye
I thought that you wanted to fight

I had your body underneath me
Underneath
You pull her out from underneath me
Underneath my feet

I might be high
As the ceiling
You had me high
I'm believing, but now I'm missing the feeling
You had me high
As the ceiling
But I'm missing the feeling and now I'm kickin' and screamin'

Lately, it's like cupid taking candy from a baby
And baby, you blame me for everything you couldn't handle
Lately, you blame me

I had your body underneath me
Underneath
You pull her out from underneath me
Underneath my feet

I had your body underneath me
Underneath

You pull her out from underneath me

Lately, it's like cupid taking candy from a baby
And baby, you blame me for everything you couldn't handle

And baby, you blame me for everything you couldn't handle
