

Wrong Girl

Jax

Three a.m. and my eyes are open
I've been watching
I've been waiting
Waiting for you

Say you been home, and I was hoping
You aren't a liar or a cheater, but it's true

You thought you could get away
Making a fool out of me
But you have no idea

I am going to
Completely destroy you
You messed with the wrong girl

No use in hiding
I know where to find you
You messed with the wrong girl

Wearin' black, hangin' back in the shadows
I've been watching
I've been waiting
Waiting for you

Before, you know it, I'm behind you
Any second
You'll be begging
For your life

You thought you could get away
Making a fool out of me
But you have no idea

I am going to
Completely destroy you
You messed with the wrong girl

No use in hiding
I know where to find you
You messed with the wrong girl

I'm taking you down
I'm tying you up
I'm ready to get some answers

You said it was love
That I was enough
But you just had to have her

You're gonna pay
For the heart that you break
Baby, you're not getting away
You have no idea

I am going to
Completely destroy you

You messed with the wrong girl

No use in hiding
I know where I will find you

You messed with the wrong girl
You messed with the wrong girl
You messed with the wrong girl
You messed with the wrong girl
You messed with the wrong girl
You fucked with the wrong girl
